

7th Annual YOUTH ART SHOWCASE

The Center for School Behavioral Health's Youth Art Showcase is an annual celebration and awareness event highlighting the importance of engaging youth in conversations about mental health.

THEME: WHAT DOES STRENGTH MEAN TO YOU?

Strength can be found within yourself or from external sources such as family, friends, or the community. We encourage you to create a piece that displays what strength means to you and/or your source(s) of strength.

- Calling all Greater Houston youth, ages 5-20
- Collage, drawings, mixed media, mosaics, needlework, paint, or photography
- Prizes will be awarded
- Send questions to csbhinfo@mhahouston.org

Submission Deadline:
Friday, April 14th, 2023

Scan here to submit artwork

